

China Vibration Optical Cable Price List

AI Overview

Vibration optical cables in China are available from multiple manufacturers with prices varying by type, specifications, and order volume, typically ranging from $0.50 to $5 per meter for standard cables, with factory-direct bulk orders offering lower rates. Overview of Pricing China's optical cable market offers a wide range of products, including ADSS, FTTH, armored, and vibration-resistant optical cables. Prices depend on factors such as fiber count, cable structure, protective layers, and environmental resistance. For example, ADSS cables for outdoor use generally cost more than standard indoor FTTH cables due to additional armoring and weatherproofing. Factory-direct suppliers like ZTO Cable provide competitive pricing by eliminating intermediaries and offering bulk discounts. Supplier Options Made-in-China and Alibaba list numerous optical cable manufacturers and distributors, allowing buyers to request custom quotes for vibration-resistant cables. Wolontek provides a detailed manufacturer price guide for different cable types, including ADSS, outdoor, and FTTH, with tips for obtaining the best factory-direct rates. ZTO Cable specializes in high-tech optical cables, including double-jacket and armored vibration-resistant types, and offers direct sales pricing for large orders. Cost-Saving Strategies Bulk Orders: Ordering in large quantities reduces per-meter costs. OEM Customization: Specifying cable requirements directly with manufacturers can lower costs and ensure performance standards. Factory-Direct Sourcing: Purchasing directly from manufacturers like ZTO or Wolontek avoids distributor markups. Comparison Shopping: Use platforms like Alibaba and Made-in-China to compare multiple suppliers and request quotes for the same specifications. Typical Price Range Standard indoor FTTH cables: $0.50–$1.50 per meter Outdoor ADSS cables: $1.50–$3 per meter Double-armored vibration-resistant cables: $3–$5 per meter, depending on fiber count and protective layers For precise pricing, it is recommend...
