

Control box and distribution box 600

Overview

COM600S is a versatile substation automation and data management unit. Together with protection and control relays and other communication devices, it enables smart solutions for utility or industrial medium voltage distribution substations. A distribution box, also known as a distribution board or panel, is the central unit that distributes incoming electrical power to various circuits. Each outgoing line can be individually. The Controlbox is well suited for under-surface drainage constructions due to its very high mechanical strength. It serves as inspection tunnels for the VARIO-Box system and can be easily combined with one another owing to its modular design.
