

Custom Price of Lighting Distribution Boxes in Uganda

AI Overview

Custom lighting distribution boxes in Uganda are available from local suppliers, with prices varying based on specifications, quantity, and customization requirements.

Supplier Options

Elektrex Uganda Elektrex is a leading electrical supplier in Kampala, offering a wide range of electrical products including lighting distribution boxes. They accept custom orders, allowing clients to specify size, material, and configuration. Prices are determined based on the complexity of the design and quantity ordered, and they also provide installation services for residential, commercial, and industrial projects.

HW-Hardware World (U) Ltd HW-Hardware World stocks standard distribution boxes and related electrical components. While their website lists products under the "Distribution Boxes" category, availability may vary, and custom orders can be requested directly through their sales team. They offer delivery services and warranties when specified.

Online Marketplaces Platforms like Jiji.ug and Amin.ug list both new and used electrical equipment, including lighting distribution boxes. Prices start from as low as USh 650 for basic units, but custom or industrial-grade boxes are priced higher depending on specifications, materials, and features.

Factors Affecting Custom Pricing

Material and Build Quality: Metal enclosures are generally more expensive than plastic ones.

Size and Capacity: Larger boxes with more circuits or compartments cost more.

Customization Features: Additional features like weatherproofing, lockable doors, or integrated surge protection increase the price.

Quantity: Bulk orders often reduce the per-unit cost.

Delivery and Installation: Some suppliers include installation in the pricing, while others charge separately.
