

Direct supply from Vietnam s intelligent manufacturer of passive optical components

AI Overview

Vietnam hosts a range of ISO-certified manufacturers offering direct supply of high-quality passive optical components for telecom, data center, and AI infrastructure applications. Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

Ample Sun is a leading fiber optic manufacturer in Vietnam, operating an 8,640 m² ISO 9001-certified facility. They specialize in MPO, SN, LC/SC connectors, pre-connectorized solutions, FTTH, 5G connectivity, and high-density optical networking products. Their full-cycle capabilities include R&D, molding, assembly, and customization to meet specific technical requirements, making them suitable for direct procurement of advanced passive optical components (Ample Sun).

Nissei Technology (Vietnam) Ltd. focuses on manufacturing and assembling optical components, optical units, and precision mechanical components for multifunctional devices and automotive applications. They also provide integrated injection mold services, covering design, manufacturing, repair, and maintenance, which can support customized optical component production (Nissei Technology).

Sourcing Platforms and Directories Trademo and Viet Factory are comprehensive platforms to identify and connect with Vietnamese optical manufacturers. Trademo provides shipment data, trade volumes, and supplier insights, helping buyers evaluate reliability and scale (Trademo). Viet Factory allows posting detailed Request For Suppliers (RFS) to receive direct contacts from manufacturers, and their sourcing team can suggest the top three suppliers matching your requirements (Viet Factory).
