AI Overview

Leading network cabinet manufacturers in India include NetRack India, Dynamic Rack, and Netshell, offering high-quality, customizable IT racks and enclosures for data centers and industrial applications.

Key Manufacturers

- 1. NetRack India NetRack India specializes in server racks, network enclosures, and cable management solutions for data centers and IT infrastructure. Their products are ISO-standard, durable, and customizable, supporting both new installations and retrofitting into existing setups. They provide intelligent rack access controllers and advanced power management solutions to ensure operational efficiency and data center reliability.
- 2. Dynamic Rack Dynamic Rack has over a decade of experience in high-performance, cost-effective networking solutions. They manufacture 19-inch racks, server cabinets, wall-mount racks, and fiber optic enclosures. Their products are designed for optimal space utilization, air circulation, and load-bearing capacity, and they offer customization in dimensions and colors to meet specific client requirements.
- 3. Netshell Netshell provides premium-grade IT racks and enclosures with a focus on customization, modularity, and energy efficiency. Their cabinets are designed for industrial and commercial-grade applications, featuring detachable side panels, ventilation cut-outs, and enhanced cable management. Netshell emphasizes compliance with industry standards, durability, and long-term support, making them suitable for data centers and complex IT networks.
