

Price of Plastic Covers for Household Electrical Distribution Boxes

AI Overview

Household plastic electrical distribution box covers typically range from £5 to £25 depending on size, brand, and features. Price Range and Options Amazon UK offers a variety of plastic electrical box covers, with prices generally starting around £5 for small blank covers and going up to £20–£25 for larger or specialized distribution boxes. Toolstation provides plastic enclosures at everyday low prices, suitable for wall-mounted household distribution boxes, with options for next-day delivery or in-store collection. B&Q stocks enclosures and power distribution boxes, with prices varying based on size and type, often including free delivery for orders over £75. Amazon Germany lists a rectangular wall-mounted distribution box (300 x 220 x 120 mm) made of flame-retardant, shock-resistant thermoplastic, which is a typical household size, priced around €15–€20 depending on the seller. Factors Affecting Price Size and Capacity: Larger boxes that can accommodate more circuits or cables cost more. Material and Safety Features: Flame-retardant, shock-resistant thermoplastics or boxes with IP ratings for moisture protection are priced higher. Brand and Certification: Established brands like Poly Pool or TayMac may be slightly more expensive due to quality assurance and compliance with safety standards. Accessories: Some boxes come with screws, mounting kits, or covers included, which can affect the price. Buying Tips Check the dimensions to ensure the box fits your installation space. Look for safety certifications and flame-retardant materials for household use. Compare prices across online retailers like Amazon, Toolstation, and B&Q to find the best deal. Consider delivery options if you need the box quickly, as some suppliers offer next-day delivery. Overall, for a standard household plastic electrical distribution box cover, you can expect to pay between £...
