

Vietnam Price of Active Optical Components 10G

AI Overview

10G active optical components in Vietnam, such as SFP+ modules, typically range from $50 to $150 per unit depending on type, brand, and industrial specifications. Market Overview Vietnam's fiber optic and active optical component market is experiencing rapid growth, driven by the expansion of 5G networks, fiber-to-the-home (FTTH) deployments, and government digital transformation initiatives. The market for active optical chips, which power 10G transceivers, is projected to grow at a CAGR of over 15% globally, with Vietnam benefiting from infrastructural upgrades and increasing investments in telecommunications. Major suppliers in Vietnam include FPT Telecom, Viettel Group, VNPT, Huawei, ZTE, and specialized providers like Kocent Optec. 10G SFP+ Modules 10G SFP+ transceivers are the most common active optical components for high-speed connectivity in data centers, industrial IoT networks, and 5G base stations. Prices vary based on: Type: LR (long-range), SR (short-range), or industrial-grade modules Brand: International brands like Huawei or Cisco may command higher prices Environmental specifications: Modules designed for high-temperature or high-humidity conditions cost more Indicative pricing for Vietnam is approximately $50–$150 per 10G SFP+ unit, with industrial-grade or high-density modules at the upper end. Bulk purchases for telecom operators or data centers may reduce per-unit costs. Regional and Application Insights Urban hubs: Ho Chi Minh City, Hanoi, and Da Nang lead in adoption due to dense telecom infrastructure and smart city projects. Industrial zones: Bac Ninh and Binh Duong integrate 10G SFP+ modules in IIoT networks. Telecom operators: Viettel, VNPT, and FPT Telecom are major buyers, often sourcing high-compatibility transceivers for network expansion. Market Trends Rising demand: Driven by cloud...
