

What brands of cable management racks are available

AI Overview

Popular cable management rack brands include ZhiYo, Leinuosen, StarTech, Metsec, and Rittal, offering horizontal, vertical, D-ring, and ladder-style solutions.

Server Rack Cable Management Brands

- ZhiYo: Offers PVC raceway kits suitable for home offices, corporate server rooms, and industrial setups. Their raceways accommodate multiple cables, are customizable in length, and meet UL 94 flame-retardant standards for safety.
- Leinuosen: Provides 1U horizontal rack cable managers with metal finger ducts, ideal for organizing patch cords in tight server cabinet spaces while maintaining airflow and dust protection.
- StarTech: Known for vertical cable management panels and D-ring systems. Their vertical panels and D-rings help secure cables along the rack's height, improving airflow and reducing strain on connections.
- Cable Ladder and Industrial Racks
- Metsec: Specializes in cable ladder rack systems for industrial and electrical applications. They offer mild steel, pre-galvanized, hot-dip galvanized, and stainless steel options, with depths ranging from 50mm to 150mm and widths up to 900mm. Metsec ladders conform to BS EN 61537 standards and include accessories for easy installation.

Other Notable Brands

- Rittal GmbH & Co. KG: A leading manufacturer of network racks and cable management solutions, widely used in data centers and enterprise environments.
- AnD Cable Products and Rama Enterprises: Offer a range of cable management solutions compatible with standard 19-inch racks, suitable for both network and server equipment.

Summary

Cable management racks come in horizontal, vertical, D-ring, and ladder styles, and the choice of brand depends on your environment and cable volume. ZhiYo, Leinuosen, and StarTech are popular for server and office racks, while Metsec is preferred for industrial ladder systems. Rittal, AnD Cable Products, and Ra...
